

2017 CALNENA 9-1-1 Mission Critical Training

February 27 – March 2, 2017

San Diego (La Jolla), California

Partner Contract, Partner Rules and Regulations

The California Chapter of NENA (CALNENA) is proud to announce that the 2017 Mission Critical Training Event (MCTE) is scheduled for February 27 - March 2, 2017. The MCTE will be held at the Hyatt Regency La Jolla at Aventine in San Diego. This 5 star hotel will be used exclusively for the CALNENA Training Event. Enjoy a seaside destination with the charm of a European Village and the panache of Southern California. As always we strive to make the transition to a new and improved location a pleasant one for our commercial partners. Based on feedback received, we have made modifications to include more exposure to the attendees while continuing to keep the costs reasonable for partnering. In our new venue, we will have two partner areas, one for our tabletop partners and one for our Diamond, Sapphire and Ruby partners.

The following prospectus reflects options for continuing CALNENA's relationship with our commercial community while considering your maximum exposure and cost containment. We hope you join us for another year of quality training, trade exposition, and networking.

You can partner with CALNENA in one of the following ways:

- Diamond Partner Package (Limited): A $10,000 Commitment
 - Sapphire Partner Package: A $7,500 Commitment
 - Ruby Partner Package: A $3,000 Commitment
 - Tabletop Package: A $1,500 Commitment

The new exclusive Sponsor exhibit space is adjacent to the registration area with higher visibility to attendees. See attached map and photos for location.

In case the partner is not held for any reason whatsoever, the rental and lease of space to partner shall be terminated, in which case the claim limit shall be the pro rata amount paid. Cancellations must be in writing to the CALNENA Partner Chair.

Payment or Set-up failure:

In the event the partner fails to install their display within the time limit set for the opening of the partner, or fails to pay the space rental at the time specified, the CALNENA Partner Chairperson shall have the right to take possession of said space and resell it or any part thereof.

Access to partner areas:

At all times, every person, including temporary workers must wear an identifiable and acceptable CALNENA event badge. To assure maximum security protection for open partners and merchandise, after hours work and/or entertainment will not be permitted in the partner halls on show days. Everyone must vacate the partner areas within one-half hour of the official closing time of the partner.

Attendance:

Representatives of the partnering firms' must staff partner space at all times while the partner is officially open. The firms' representatives are required to wear partner badges at all times.

Change of Venue:

If for any reason the CALNENA Partner Chairperson deems it necessary to change the location of the training event/partner, CALNENA reserves the right to reassign all booth space, as the Association deems best.

Display Restrictions:

The CALNENA Partner Chairperson reserves the right to restrict displays which because of noise, methods of operation, or materials, become objectionable, and to prohibit or remove any displays which, in the opinion of the aforementioned, detract from the general character of, or the appearance of, the partner. Partners which include the operation of noisemaking apparatus must be operated so that the noise resulting there from will not annoy or disturb adjacent partners and their visitors, and must be approved by the CALNENA Partner Chair. Demonstrations found to be objectionable because of noise levels, or blocking traffic flow, may be shut down. No equipment, signage, or personnel may infringe on another partner's area. All displays/equipment must be contained within your assigned space only.

The CALNENA Partner Chairperson may require an partner to make changes in its partner if, in the Chair's opinion, the partner does not conform with prevailing standards of good taste or interferes with the rights of other partners. If a demonstration results in spectators in the aisle or at neighboring tabletops, the Partner Chairperson may request modification or elimination of the presentation. No partner shall assign, sublet, or share the space without the consent of the CALNENA Partner Chairperson. Partners must display goods manufactured or dealt in by them in their regular course of business, unless otherwise approved by the CALNENA Partner Chairperson.

Hospitality Suites and Conflicting Activities:

Other than Diamond and Sapphire Partners, partner's hospitality suites, or other activities that would attract attendees, may not be open during any official CALNENA event.

Announcements and Signs:

Partnering firms' signs identifying activities not part of the overall conference or partner shall be permitted only within the partner's designated area or a location approved for this purpose by the CALNENA Partner Chairperson.

IRS Restriction on Sales in Partners:

In accordance with IRS Revenue Rulings 75.516, 75.517, 75.519 and 75.520, no firm or organization is permitted to engage in direct sales or order taking within the partner areas.

Agreement:

By submitting payment for space, the partner agrees to abide by the rules and regulations and all amendments thereto and the decisions of the CALNENA Partner Chairperson and their assignees. Partners agree that if they fail to meet the specified timetable for payment of space, their reserved space may be canceled or moved, as the CALNENA Partner Chairperson deems best.

Compliance:

Each partnering firm agrees to comply with all federal, state and local laws and ordinances applicable to the space leased, and also such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary by the CALNENA Committee, the Partner Chairperson, and/or the exposition facility.

Enforcement:

Enforcement of all partner rules is the responsibility of the Partner Chairperson.

Extenuating Circumstances:

CALNENA will not be responsible for delays, damage, loss, increased costs or other unfavorable conditions caused by labor disputes, work stoppages, government order, emergency, or other circumstances beyond their control.

Fire Safety:

All existing fire codes must be complied with. If there are any questions, contact the Partner Chairperson or facility representative.

Indemnification:

The partnering firm shall indemnify CALNENA, all co-sponsoring organizations, the official contractors, and facility management against, and hold them harmless from, any complaints, suits or liability from negligence of the partnering firm in connection with partnering firm's use of partner space or loss, to dismantle, dispose of, store and clear from the premises any display.

Installation and Removal of Partners:

All tabletop displays must be erected and open for viewing by Tuesday, February 28th at 10:00am. Goods received after the opening of the partner must be delivered to the booth at a pre-arranged time other than official partner hours. The deadline for removal of all materials from the partner hall will be enforced. It is the sole responsibility of each partner to have materials packed, identified, and cleared for shipment at such time. The Partner Chairperson reserves the right, with no liability whatsoever for damage, spoilage or loss, to dismantle, dispose of, store and clear from the premises any display material, goods, property or merchandise of any partner who has failed to comply with the above requirement, or in order for such work to be done at the sole expense of the partner.

Liability and Insurance:

Reasonable precautions will be taken by the Event Committee to protect property during installation, show period, and removal. However, neither CALNENA, nor the Event Committee will be responsible for or guarantee to the partner the safety of partner material or other personal property against fire, accident, theft or loss, or destruction from any cause whatsoever. The Event Committee has taken reasonable precautions against loss and will provide security service throughout the duration of the conference. However, the partner assumes all responsibility for damage or loss to his partners and for damage caused by his partner to the property or rights of other parties, including injury to the Mission Bay Hyatt, San Diego. Small and valuable material is to be packed away each night. If insurance is desired, it is the responsibility of the partner. All property of the partner will remain in his custody and control in transit to, from, and within the confines of the partner hall, subject to the rules and regulations of the partner. Partners are advised to carry appropriate liability insurance against the personal injury and property of others. The furnishing of watchmen by CALNENA is deemed a courtesy to the partner and shall not be understood or interpreted by partners as a guarantee against loss or damage to partners during this event.

Policy Administration:

These Partner Rules are part of the contract between the partnering firm and CALNENA. The Event Committee (and Partner Chairperson as their designee) shall have the authority to interpret and enforce these rules. All matters not covered by these regulations are subject to the decision of the CALNENA Committee. All decisions so made shall be as binding on all parties. The partnering firm or its representative who fails to observe these conditions or contract may be excluded from the Partner without refund.

Public Policy:

Each partner is charged with full knowledge and compliance with all laws, ordinances, and regulations pertaining to health, fire prevention, and public safety as related to the partner facility.

Shipping & Receiving:

For shipping materials directly to the hotel, please contact hotel.

Storage:

Storage of boxes that are out of view is permissible, no exceptions.

Variations:

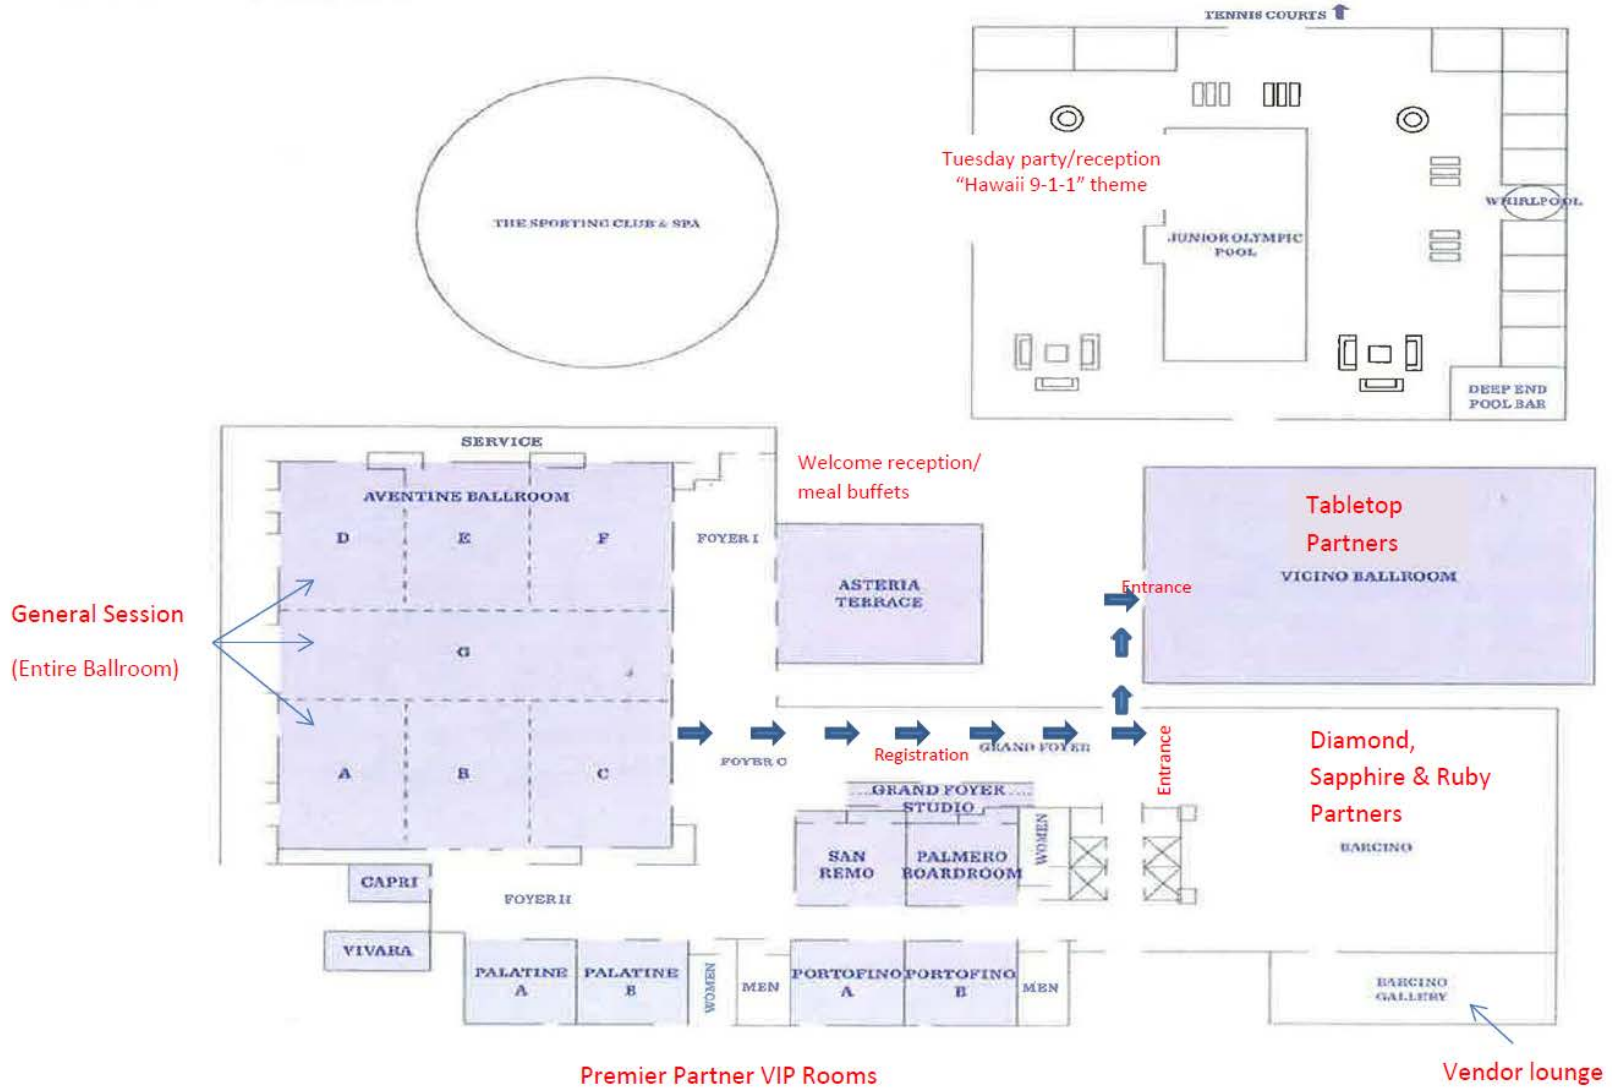

The Partner Chairperson must receive all requests for variations in the CALNENA Partner Rules and Regulations in writing at least 30 days prior to the first move-in date. No variation of any kind will be permitted without the prior written approval of the Event Committee and Partner Chairperson. This approval or disapproval will generally be responded to within 30 days of its receipt, but in no case later than 30 days prior to the partner opening. Sketches and/or engineering drawings illustrating the variation should accompany such requests when appropriate.

Violations:

Show management reserves the right to limit or terminate any hospitality function if it violates partner rules.
