

2019 CALNENA 9-1-1 Mission Critical Training

March 10, 2019 - March 13, 2019
San Diego (La Jolla), California

Partner Contract, Partner Rules and Regulations

The California Chapter of NENA (CALNENA) is proud to announce that the 2019 Mission Critical Training Event (MCTE) is scheduled for March 10 – 13, 2019. The MCTE will again be held at the Hyatt Regency La Jolla at Aventine in San Diego. This 5 star hotel will be used exclusively for the CALNENA Training Event. Enjoy a seaside destination with the charm of a European Village and the panache of Southern California. We continue to make modifications based on feedback from our commercial partners as well as our attendees regarding the 2019 MCTE. We will now have three partner areas, one for our Tabletop partners, one for our Ruby partners and one for our Diamond partners.

The following prospectus reflects options for continuing CALNENA's relationship with our commercial community while considering your maximum exposure and cost containment. We hope those of you that have joined us before return, and those of you that have never attended, join us for an event full of quality training, trade exposition, and networking.

You can partner with CALNENA in one of the following ways:

- Diamond Partner Package (Limited): A $10,000 Commitment
 - Ruby Partner Package: A $4,000 Commitment
 - Tabletop Package: A $1,750 Commitment

The Diamond exhibit space is in the foyer directly across from the registration desk between the General Session Hall and the Ruby exhibit space.
